

PICTURES

ALIEN SPECIAL

M. CLOSE/SYGMA/AUSTRAL

PETER BROOKER/REX FEATURES/AUSTRAL

M. CLOSE/SYGMA/AUSTRAL

TWO HEADS AREN'T ALWAYS BETTER THAN ONE

Meet Anastasya, another Home Girls entrant who likes aerobics, volleyball and reading. She's got someone on her mind. That's why, reluctantly, we had to knock her back.

GARRETT ON A STICK

Reluctant pop star and human windmill Peter Garrett is the subject of Brit artist John Humphries' exhibit in the London Contemporary Art & Food Fair. No, seriously — it's a sculpture called 'The Devil Within'.

NEVER PUT YOUR HEAD IN A MICROWAVE

Bernard had a big date, but horrors — his hairdryer chose that very evening to go on the blink! Bernard tried to dry his head in the microwave. It wasn't a good idea. Now the microwave smells funny.

THE GIRL THE PICTURE REJECTS

We receive LOTS of entries for our Home Girls pages but lack of space means we can't print them all. This young hopeful didn't quite make the grade. Her tits just weren't BIG ENOUGH.

M. CLOSE, SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

HEY MA! LET'S EAT HER SHORTS!

That's 'E Street' actress Toni Pearen somewhere in there, getting monstered by the Ten Network's new stars, The Simpletons. Seems they're not only world-famous TV characters — they're TV critics as well.

THE PICTURE maintains its position at the cutting edge of photojournalism with an international network of top pro shutterbuggers. If YOU have a zany, crazy, sexy or shocking photo, send it to: PICTURES GPO Box 5201, Sydney 2001

VEDAT AKMALIN/LIVE ACTION